

to say that I have noticed in certain papers, supposed to know what was done in the Committee on Appropriations yesterday, that it is stated that I offered an amendment increasing the salaries of Congressmen and that it was not agreed to by the committee. My associates on that committee will bear me out in stating that no amendment of that character was offered.

Mr. HALE. The action of the committee was entirely unanimous.

Mr. NELSON. I understand the committee report no increases?

Mr. HALE. No increases anywhere in that direction.

The reading of the bill was resumed and concluded.

Mr. CULLOM. Mr. President, let the bill go over as it stands, and I will call it up to-morrow morning or some other time that may be agreed upon.

Mr. FORAKER. I did not understand what the Senator from Illinois said.

Mr. CULLOM. I am willing to let the bill go over now, the reading having been finished, to be disposed of to-morrow morning or some other time.

Mr. FORAKER. I hope the committee will agree to the amendment, of which I gave notice, increasing the salary of the disbursing officer of the Post-Office Department $250. He disburses a large amount of money and he gives a large bond, which is a burden to him. Officers of that grade are generally paid $2,500, as I understand.

Mr. CULLOM. What is this officer getting?

Mr. FORAKER. Twenty-two hundred and fifty dollars, and my amendment is to strike out "two hundred and fifty" and insert "five hundred," so as to pay him what other officials of the Government of that class get.

Mr. CULLOM. We have just stricken out a part of the salary where a disbursing officer was receiving $2,750 and cut it down to $2,500.

Mr. FORAKER. I want to meet you half way—

Mr. CULLOM. I will consult with the Senator to-morrow with reference to the official to whom he refers and see what can be done about it.

Mr. FORAKER. I am willing to let it go over, but I was afraid I might not be here when it came up.

Mr. CULLOM. I move that the Senate adjourn.

The motion was agreed to; and (at 5 o'clock and 34 minutes p. m.) the Senate adjourned until to-morrow, Saturday, January 12, 1907, at 12 o'clock meridian.
